

NURSING JOB POSTING

POSITION: Temporary part-time position (.8) - Oncology and palliative community healthcare nurse

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 13, 2026

POSTING PERIOD: February 13 – 27, 2026

Classification: NOVA West Island community staff nurse

Salary: As per salary scale of Collective Agreement

Hours of work: 7.25 hours per day + weekly on-call (4h30pm – 8h30am) and weekend duty every 4-6 weeks

Area of work: West Island (requires driving and use of own car)

Responsibilities & Qualifications:

Provides primary care, support and education to oncology and palliative care clients and families in their home

Functions as an integral member of the multidisciplinary healthcare team

Works complementarily with other healthcare organizations and professionals

Participates occasionally in public awareness and networking activities to promote NOVA West Island's programs and services

Current registration with OIIQ

Functional bilingualism (English & French) to serve the West Island community

Clinical experience in oncology/palliative care and/or community health care

Capable of performing and communicating bio-psycho-social assessments

Excellent communication, time management and organization skills

Able to work independently and as a team member

Advanced educational preparation is an asset

Please submit application in writing to Marie-France Juneau, Executive Director: mfruneau@novawi.org